

Care of the Elderly: Simplifying Complexity

Sep 29th -Oct 1st, 2017

Friday (CME: 4)	Topic
1:00-1:30	How to choose wisely among new drugs?
1:30-2:00	Oral anticoagulation in VTE: what is beyond warfarin?
2:00-2:30	Drug industry sponsored
2:30-3:00	Coffee break
3:00-3:30	Use of PPIs: benefits, indications and harms
3:30-4:00	Research presentations
4:00-4:30	10 ten articles that changed my practice
4:30-5:00	How to choose among the various antidepressants?
5:00-5:30	Key note Lecture: Family Medicine in the era of sub specialization
5:30-	Opening ceremony
Saturday (CME: 5.5)	Topic
8:30-9:30	Key note lecture: Primary care for the elderly: why do doctors find it hard?
9:30-10:00	Geriatric sleep disorders
10:00-10:30	Anemia in elderly: when to investigate?
10:30-11:00	Drug industry sponsored
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:00	Approach to Alzheimer behavior changes: patient and caregiver

12:00-12:30	Is geriatrics still out of EBM movement: challenges and opportunities
12:30-13:00	Does andropause exist?
13:00-13:30	Drug industry sponsored (Novartis)
13:30-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:00	Does diurnal variations in blood pressure matter in the treatment of HTN?
15:00-15:30	New LDL targets and new therapies (ASCVD) (role of ezetimibe)
15:30-16:00	Chronic renal failure: what the primary care can offer
16:00-17:00	Workshop (Insulin therapy for diabetes: what are our options and strategies)
16:00-17:00	Workshop (Diet advice: obesity, diabetic)
16:00-17:00	Tips on how to publish
Sunday (CME: 4)	Topic
8:00-9:00	Breakfast discussion: Physician self-disclosure
9:00-9:30	Early infancy Nutrition: challenges and solutions
9:30-10:00	Key note: Diagnosis in general practice where no diagnostic label is applied
10:00-10:30	Current approaches to enuresis
10:30-11:00	Drug industry sponsored
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:00	Endometriosis for the primary care physician
12:00-12:30	Approach to fatty liver
12:30-13:00	Spirituality

13:00-13:30	Drug industry sponsored NOVARTIS
	Lunch